

Special Delivery

You know that the greatest gift (besides sleep) you can give a new mom is a hot cooked meal, but you don't have any time to cook for her yourself. Not a problem: Give your pal a series of fresh-frozen, home-delivered dinners from magickitchen.com. For $99 you can get a sampler of six amazing meals for two people: beef roast, eggplant parmigiana, roast turkey breast with gravy and sides, and desserts like panna cotta and "pucker up" lemon loaf are just some of the tempting options. Receive a 10 percent discount for all products now through June 30, 2008—when ordering, just use the promotional code "parents."
