

MagicKitchen.com Introduces a Local Partner Program

LOS ALTOS, CA, July 25, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Today, Greg Miller, CEO of MagicKitchen.com announced a new partner program for companies interested in representing MagicKitchen.com in specified geographic areas throughout the United States. "Our program allows for local representation of MagicKitchen.com's full line of HomeStyle and Special Diets menu items," said Greg Miller. "With local representatives we can work with large national companies as well as regional and local companies."

Customers to be focused on with local resources include Healthcare Organizations and Health Plans, specialized medical facilities such as clinics, dialysis centers, assisted living facilities, fitness centers, corporate clients, regional concierge services, etc. Aside from the extensive line of HomeStyle meals, the Special Diets Menu MagicKitchen.com has available include senior meals, portion controlled, low sodium, diabetic, renal and dialysis-friendly meals.

The first partner in the program is Modern Meals, LLC. In Branford, Connecticut and they will be responsible for the full state of Connecticut. "Given the breadth of culinary experience and prior work with the senior community, the team at Modern Meals will be a great introduction for our program. "We are delighted to have them be a part of our expanding team." said Greg Miller.

"We were very impressed with not only the product line that MagicKitchen.com offered but with their corporate philosophy as well" said David LaCroix, managing partner of Modern Meals, LLC. "We are excited for the opportunity to work together." LaCroix continued.
